Women Literacy Centres/ Mahila Siksha Kendra

BYPL has signed an MoU with Dhanpatmal Virmani Education Trust & Management Society to run women literacy centres in 40 clusters in East and Central Delhi. Centres are being run in Kalyanpuri, Trilokpuri, Shastri Park, Ghazipur, Janta Mazdoor Colony, Seelampur in East Delhi and Kharibaoli, Pradhan Chowk, Lahori Gate, Tilak Bazar in Central Delhi. Each instructor is tasked with imparting functional literacy six month duration classes to 30 women per MSK centre. In FY15, over 1540 participants have benefited from this initiative.

Primary objective behind the program:

- To make these underprivileged girls/women self reliant and to give them confidence to face challenges in life
- To make them literate, so that they are able read and write and can fill formats, which are used in day to day life - like bank withdrawal slips, reading bus numbers, reading signages, reading Newspapers etc.
- Making them aware of their rights, duties and responsibilities.
- To promote general awareness and an ability to think critically and fostering decision-making skills in the beneficiaries.

➤ Initiatives towards Sanitation

BSES supports Swachh Bharat Abhiyan (October 2)

Demonstrating BSES' commitment to the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, hundreds of its employees - across its various offices spread across its licensed area of around 950 sq. kms - took the "cleanliness" pledge. They vowed to keep their surroundings and the city clean. They also wielded the broom and cleaned the areas around their offices.

BSES discoms have also appealed to their consumers to participate in the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan. Over 15 lakh smses have been sent to consumers, urging them to participate in the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan.

Swachh Bharat is also being promoted at all the health camps being conducted in East and Central Delhi.
